

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEBRASKA

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

vs.

DAVID TARRENCE,

Defendant.

4:18CR3021

ORDER

Based on the representations of counsel, the parties must now review numerous tax documents before determining how this case will be resolved. The court finds it is unreasonable to expect counsel and Defendant to be adequately prepared for trial within the time limits of the Speedy Trial Act, and this case should be excluded from those time limits so it can be fairly and justly resolved.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

- 1) A trial date will not be set at this time. Instead, a status conference will be held before the undersigned magistrate judge at 2:00 p.m. on January 29, 2019 by telephone. All participants shall use the conferencing information provided by the court, (see Filing No. 12), to participate in the call to discuss case progression and a potential trial setting. Counsel for the parties shall be present at the conference.
- 2) The Court further finds that the time between today's date and January 29, 2019 shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirements of the Speedy Trial Act, because this case remains "unusual and complex," and is exempted from the time restrictions of the Speedy Trial Act, 18 U.S.C. 3161(h)(7)(B)(ii).

December 10, 2018.
